SECO-LARM Introduces the New ENFORCER Vandal-Resistant Indoor/Outdoor Wall-Plate Camera

IRVINE, CALIF., June 14, 2011. SECO-LARM now has available for immediate shipment the new ENFORCER Vandal-Resistant Indoor/Outdoor Wall-Plate Camera.

The new camera is low-profile in size and build (1-1/4"x1"x1") and is weatherproof (IP67) for indoor or outdoor use. A 1.5mm lens with a wide 170° viewing angle helps the camera capture a large scene. It also has a Sony CCD and a 550 TV line resolution. Each kit includes 1 camera, 1 single-gang wall plate, and 1 slimline wall plate.

The camera has an adjustable mounting angle, and can be installed in a variety of different ways: single-gang back box, without a plate, in doors, walls, car bumpers, gates, entryways, machinery, and many, many more.
